 Connect, Develop, Grow

Be respectful and supportive to the other members of the workshop.

If you have any challenges with any person within the group, you will deal with it confidentially and directly with that member (outside the meeting) and speak with the Thrive director. Inappropriate conduct including without limitation, harassment, discrimination, violence and conducts which is otherwise threatening, oppressive or aggressive will not be tolerated and may result in Thrive terminating this Agreement with immediate effect. In such circumstances no refund of fee will be made.

Images may be captured during events organised and hosted by Thrive and will be taken for Thrive’s own promotional purposes including, but not limited to advertising, the Thrive website, brochures, social media and blogs. Please advise the Thrive director if you do not wish to be included.

Each workshop will be facilitated by an experienced facilitator. Our workshops are structured to give members the maximum opportunity and benefit to build trust and understanding about each other's business. The most successful members of Thrive are comprised of participants who are sincerely committed to helping one another through Thrive.
